

BRIDGECLIMB SYDNEY

Over 4.5 million people have Climbed the Sydney Harbour Bridge with BridgeClimb Sydney.

In 2018, BridgeClimb secured the top spot as the #1 Travellers' Choice Experience in Australia and achieved an impressive #4 ranking globally on TripAdvisor.

1,332

It takes 1,332 steps to reach the Summit – the equivalent of burning 504 calories.

The Sydney Harbour Bridge is the world's largest (but not longest) steel arch bridge, totaling 1,149 meters.

1,149 METERS

8

It took eight years to build the 134-meter-high Bridge, with six million rivets.

134 METERS

The Bridge was once known as the 'Iron Lung' but is now referred to as the 'Coat Hanger' due to its distinctive shape.

It is the most-climbed Bridge in the world, attracting Climbers of all ages, from the youngest at 8 to the oldest at 100.

130

Our most frequent climber has conquered the Bridge more than 130 times.

Over 5,500 couples have gotten engaged atop the Bridge, with more than 35 weddings taking place at the Summit.

The first couple to officially tie the knot were from Glasgow, Scotland, and the first same-sex couple to marry on top of the Bridge in 2018 were from Australia.

Thirty species of sharks have swum underneath the Bridge.

CELEBRITY SPOTTING

Oprah's Ultimate Australian Adventure in 2010 saw Oprah and her 316 Ultimate Viewers successfully break a BridgeClimb record for the largest number of climbers at the Summit.

Thousands of celebrities have climbed the Bridge, including King Frederik and Queen Mary of Denmark, Matt Damon, Katy Perry, Steve Irwin, Kylie Minogue, Ben Stiller as Derek Zoolander, Robert De Niro, Nicole Kidman, David Beckham, and many more!

International DJ superstar Diplo held an exclusive world-first performance on top of the Bridge to celebrate BridgeClimb's 21st birthday!

Sir Richard Branson took over the Sydney Harbour Bridge to celebrate the arrival of Virgin Voyages' The Resilient Lady to Sydney for the first time.
